#ANTIBULLYINGWEEK

ANTI-BULLYING WEEK 12-16 NOVEMBER 2018

THIS YEARS THEME: CHOOSE RESPECT OVER BULLYING

Our anti-bullying season runs throughout November.

Spaces within the anti-bullying week are already filling up fast.

THE NATIONAL AIMS OF THIS WEEK ARE TO WHO WORK WITH CHILDREN TO HELP THEM UNDERSTAND:

- That bullying is a
behaviour choice

- The definition of respect

- That we can
respectfully disagree with each other

- That we all need to choose to respect
eachother both face
to face and online.

We are thrilled with the 2018 theme which partners perfectly with our consistent, strong focus on helping children learn to respect others and themselves.

WHY CHOOSE A CREATIVE INTERVENTION TO BULLYING?

Our engaging performance and workshop structure gives your students a memorable, powerful understanding of bullying.

THE PERFORMANCE

- Accessible to all learning abilities, it gives children an opportunity to observe and learn from a bullying scenario in a safe environment, without them actually making those same mistakes themselves.
- Shows children a reflection of themselves in characters presented, or recognise a situation they have witnessed in the past/ could be involved in in the future.
- The children see the characters working towards reporting and resolving the issue, empowering them to find solutions in their own lives.

THE WORKSHOP

- Enables children to discuss, debate and explore the themes, in an open non-judgemental environment.
- Created to suit all learning abilities, allowing your children to experience the emotions portrayed in the performance and work together to find resolutions.
- Using metaphoric activities to help them to understand the deeper impact bullying can have.
- Signpost children to who, where and how they can get help within your specific setting.

Our experienced team are excellent at building rapport, working with young people to help them absorb, process, and then understand the challenging subject of bullying.
